

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

June 30, 2016

His Excellency Sir Kim Darroch
Ambassador Extraordinary & Plenipotentiary to the US
The British Embassy
3100 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20008

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Your nation has made a historic decision to depart the European Union (EU), and while some are welcoming this vote as a victory, others fear the uncertainty of an independent future.

But whatever challenges may lie ahead, we write to let you know this: America stands with the UK.

We have been partners in peace and steadfast allies in war, and in the wake of this consequential vote, we want to assure the people of the UK that our alliance will not falter, our commitments will not be broken, and the Special Relationship will not fail.

Together, our countries have met the defining challenges of the modern era, and the Special Relationship between us has forever changed the face of the free world. That bond will persevere, and America stands ready to work with you during this transition.

Sincerely,

Michael T. McCaul
